Numb. 1152

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 30. to Monday December 4. 1676.

Zuikiew in Poland, Nov. 13.

THE King being returned hither from the Camp, (after having given the necessary orders for the putting his Troops into Winter-quarters) where he found the Queen, the Foreign Ministers, the Senators, and other persons of quality which had remained at Leopol, forthwith repaired to this place, to pay their respects to his Majesty. At the same time Mr Hide Ambassador of His Majesty of Great Britain, who, since his arrival in this Kingdom, had not yet had Audience of his Majesty, by reason of his being in the Field against the Enemy; upon notice that the King desired to receive his Excellency here, accordingly rendred himself on the place, and on Sunday last in the afternoon, his Excellency had his Publick Audience assigned him, which was performed with all the Honours and Respects due to his Character, and with marks of a particular esteem and consideration for his Person; the great Master of the Horse of the Crown, accompanied by a great number of Gentlemen of quality on Horseback, and attended by the Kings Pages, Footmen, &c. was appointed to go and receive his Excellency at his Lodging, which he did, and conducted him in the Kings Coach, being one of the richest, and the same their Majesties made use of at their Coronations; his Excellency had a very gallant Train, viz. of 100 or 120 Gentlemen, and a great number of Pages and Footmen in a rich and noble Livery, being come to the Castle followed by the Coaches of the Ambassadors of France, and such of the Senators and persons of quality that were here, the Kings Guards being ranged on each side, the Mareschal of the Court at the Stairs received his Excellency, who thence accompanied him to the place of Audience, where his Majesty received him, standing under a very rich Canopy of State, cloathed in a long Robe of Cloth of Gold, and a Vest of Cloth of Silver; after the usual formalities of the Audience were over, and that the King had for some short time entertained his Excellency in more familiar discourses, he was pleased to take him into the Queens apartment, his Excellency meeting everywhere with a reception full of kindness and esteem from their Majesties, who, as a farther instance thereof, were pleased to invite his Excellency to Supper, which was prepared in a great and stately Room, his Excellency being seated on the Kings right hand and next to him, as likewise on the Queens left hand, several persons of the greatest quality in this Kingdom; after Supper, which lasted several hours, and was served with great magnificence, his Excellency was conducted back to his Lodging with the Kings Coaches, &c. the next day all the Senators and other persons of quality made their visits to his Excellency, which he returned the day following; and this evening his Excellency will have his Audience of Leave of their Majesties, in order to his return home.

Madrid, Nov. 18. The Marquis de Villa Sierra, is finally declared by his Majesty first Minister of State, and as such has received the Complements of the Foreign Ministers, and others the persons of quality of this Court, and has taken his Lodgings in the Palace. The 6th Instant, being the Kings Birth-day, (when his Majesty entered into the 16 year of his age) was celebrated at Court with great Solemnity. We are assured that a very great Sum of Money will be remitted to the Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, to enable him to make vigorous preparations against Spring; and besides it is said that a very great Fleet will be fitted out by this Crown, to be employed against the French in Sicily, where we hear our affairs do not go very well. We are much concerned that we have not as yet any news of our New-Spain Fleet, and there be some that now begin to think it will not arrive till next year, having wintered, as they believe, at the Havana. From Catalonia they tell us, that the Duke de Navailles was upon his return to the French Court, leaving the Kings Forces in Rousillon, which, it's said, exceed not 4 or 5000 men, under the command of the Sieur le Bret. The King has resolved in May next to take his journey to Saragosa, to confirm the Privileges of the Kingdom of Arragon, and in the mean time has sent to signifie this his resolution to the States of that Kingdom.

Marseilles, Nov. 24. We have advice that 10 Gallies are arrived upon the Coast from Messina, the other 14 being ordered to remain and winter there; some Passengers that came in them are already landed, and confirm the taking of the Scaliers by the Duke de Vivonne; which is a success of very great importance, for that it opens the Countrey to the Messinese, from whence they will be able to draw Provisions and other Necessaries, which before they could not have from abroad: 12 of our Men of War are likewise returning home, and the rest remain at Messina.

Copenhagen, Nov. 28. The Army of the King of Denmark lies encamped from Landscroon to Lundun, strong Guards being appointed at the Bridges of Kevelinge and Goldinge. The Swedish Army lies on the other side of the River near Christianstadt, having sent off a great many Wagons with Baggage and sick men to Helmstadt, whither, it's said, the whole Army will suddenly follow, at least we wish it, for that our Troops suffer extremely by remaining so long in the Field. The Swedes have had a design to surprize Christianople, but it did not succeed, the Danish Troops in those parts having defeated them, and taken 11 Standards. We have a report of the Boors having fallen upon a Body of Swedes, under the command of the Count de la Gardie, towards the Frontiers of Norway, and of their having routed them.

Stockholme Octob. 30. Our last Letters from the Army gave us an account, that the King having taken a general review of his Army, found it to consist in 22000 Men, besides 8000 Boors or Club-men; that his Majesty was marched into Schonen, dividing his Army, for the conveniency of his march, into three Bodies, so that we are in continual expectation to hear of some action. The Rear-Admiral, who was formerly deprived of his Charge, and a Fine of 100000 Crowns set upon him, is not only restored by the Kings grace to his said Command, but the said Fine is likewise remitted him.

Gothenburg, Nov. 19. It cannot be expected we should have